LICENSE AND TERMINATION

- a) Title to and ownership of the software will remain with SCM and its licensors. You do not purchase the Software but only obtain a license to use it for a fixed period of time.
- b) The license will be effective for the agreed period of time unless it sooner terminates under this Agreement. This license will terminate immediately and automatically, without notice from SCM, if you fail to comply with any provision of the License. Upon termination you must destroy the Software and all copies thereof.
- c) The license will be locked to specified host computers on a year-by-year basis. A maximum number of tasks (copies of the ADF software running simultaneously) for the software will be specified which is no larger than the number of CPUs on the specified host computers. At each renewal date (once per year) you can transfer the license from one machine to another if the machines are equivalent as regards the applicable license fees.

SOFTWARE AND USAGE, TYPE OF LICENSE

The specifications in any purchase order(s) from you and in any letter(s) of confirmation by SCM will define specific conditions for the license. All so-specified details of the license will be subject to the clauses of this Agreement and will be considered part of the Agreement.

DELIVERY

- a) SCM distributes the software in electronic form at SCM's web site. Upon request SCM will ship the Software to you on other media, but this will be charged separately to cover the costs of materials and human time.
- b) The software and license keys for usage will be made available to you after payment of the applicable fees has been received.

MAINTENANCE AND RENEWALS

- a) Maintenance is part of the license agreement and implies that during the license term you are entitled to all new versions and upgrades of the Software that may be released by SCM.
- b) Maintenance does not include the daily maintenance of the Software at your computer(s), assistance with your research or the interpretation of results obtained with the Software.
- c) The license is established for an agreed period of time. At any time parties may negotiate an extension or renewal of the license term. This Agreement will control all such extensions and renewals - even if established after a temporary discontinuation of the license - unless parties agree in writing upon a modification of the clauses.

SUPPORT

- a) SCM supports versions of the Software for a limited number of platform types only. Definitions of supported platforms may include specific levels of operating systems, library versions, and compilers. The range of supported platforms is subject to change at SCM's discretion. SCM intends to support a wide range of modern platforms and to discontinue support, if at all, only for older platforms.
- b) If SCM determines that for any reason SCM will not continue to market, distribute and support the Software, SCM may terminate the options to renew the license terms on a year-by-year basis upon prior notice no less than six months before your renewal is due.

PAYMENTS; TAXES

- a) All payable amounts are net, exclusive of any Value Added Tax or other local, state, or federal use, excise, personal property, sales or similar taxes or duties that may be imposed as a result of the transactions under this Agreement. You shall be responsible for all such taxes and duties, except for taxes on SCM's business income.
- b) You shall pay each amount due within 45 days of invoice. Late payments will be subject to an interest of 1% per month, counting a part of a month as a full month, compounded from the due date.

RESTRICTIONS

- a) You may not sublicense, rent or otherwise exploit the Software other than for your internal business purposes. In case of an academic or non-profit license you may use the Software exclusively for non-profit research.
- b) Without consent from SCM you may not transfer the license to another party.
- c) You may not de-compile, reverse engineer, or disassemble the Software or otherwise reduce it to a human-perceivable form if and as far as you have legally obtained the Software only in object code format.
- d) Without prior consent from SCM you may not incorporate, or let others incorporate, the Software, in part or in whole, into another program that may reasonably be considered to constitute, in part or in whole, directly or indirectly, now or in the future, a potential competitor to the licensed Software.
- e) When you publish results obtained with the Software in the scientific literature, you must include proper references, as specified in the Software itself and / or in the related documentation.

WARRANTIES AND LIABILITIES

- a) SCM expressly disclaims all warranties, expressed and implied. You expressly acknowledge and agree that use of the Software is at your sole risk. The Software and related documentation are provided "AS IS", without warranty of any kind. No oral or written information or advice given by SCM or by any of its representatives shall create a warranty.
- b) Under no circumstances shall SCM or its directors, representatives, employees, or agents, be liable for any incidental, indirect, special or consequential damages arising out of the use, misuse or inability to use the Software. In no event shall SCM's total liability to you exceed the amount paid by you for the Software.

GENERAL

- a) If any term or provision of this Agreement shall be found to be illegal or unenforceable, then, notwithstanding that term, all other terms of this Agreement will remain in full force and effect.
- b) The laws of The Netherlands will govern this Agreement in all respects. The Amsterdam District Court will adjudicate all disputes arising in connection with this Agreement. You acknowledge and agree that this clause will supersede any conflicting standard clauses, terms, or similar rules that you may otherwise apply in agreements.

By signing below you accept the terms and conditions of this Agreement. Please forward the signed License Agreement to SCM.
