

Statement Concerning the Usage of ABAQUS Software on HPCVL Computers and/or under the HPCVL/ABAQUS Software License

All prospective users of the ABAQUS under the license agreement held by HPCVL must sign to the following statement.

1. I have obtained and read, and understand a copy of the software license agreement (SLA) that exists between ABAQUS and HPCVL concerning the ABAQUS software and license keys installed on HPCVL machines, and will abide by the terms of the SLA.
2. I am an authorized user of the software as outlined in the SLA. Specifically,
  - I working in an academic research group at an institution that is covered by an academic ABAQUS software license, and
  - I am a valid HPCVL user.
3. Any work done with this software will be in the framework of academic research. This excludes specifically commercial and contract usage.
4. I will not make access to ABAQUS available to any third party for any reason whatsoever, including other users in the same research group. The latter will have to sign up for usage separately if they qualify.
5. HPCVL will notify ABAQUS of my usage of their software
