

Statement concerning AutoDock Software

I declare that I am an academic member of HPCVL and as such entitled to use the AutoDock software residing on HPCVL computers. Access and usage are governed by the license agreement between HPCVL, Queen's University and the Scripps Research Institute, La Jolla, CA.

I further declare that:

- I have read and understood the license terms and will abide by them,
- I will use the software exclusively for academic research purposes, specifically excluding commercial and contract work,
- I will not give access to the software to any third party, particularly to non-members of HPCVL,
- I will not alter the software or distribute copies of it,
- I will cite the author of the software in research publications, as outlined in the license.
